

The Alzheimer Care Centre

High Dependency Unit

Highfield Hospital Group, Swords
Road, Whitehall, Dublin 9.

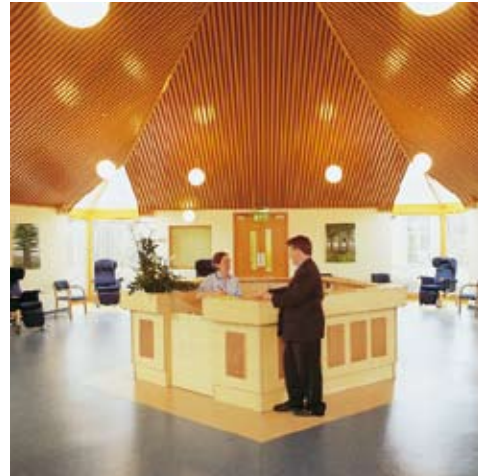

Introduction

Highfield Hospital Group is an experienced private sector healthcare provider whose ability to supply a high quality service is well proven. Having identified a very real need for more service provision for those suffering from Alzheimer's disease who require individualised, intensive and dedicated care and support the group embarked on an ambitious project to extend existing facilities in the Alzheimer Care Centre by additional 32 bed high dependency unit. This new facility complements our existing services and allows us to offer total patient management and a continuity of care to this particular client group.

Our Vision

To provide high quality in-patient services to assist individuals with age-related mental health difficulties, to attain, maintain and restore the highest quality of life.

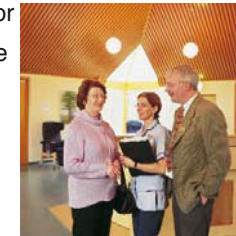

The Team

To enhance the effectiveness of treatment and support, our staff includes the following interdisciplinary team members: Consultant Psychiatrists, Registered Nurses, Care Staff, Occupational therapist, Recreational Therapists, Support Staff and a Pastoral Care Co-ordinator. All team members have experience in or a commitment to meeting the support needs of people with age-related mental health difficulties.

The Care

Facilities are purpose built, to the highest quality to ensure that the individuals themselves, their families and friends will have the best possible care and support.

This centre is dedicated to providing high quality care and support in the least restrictive setting as possible, to individuals identified as having a serious age related health issue, which will improve their quality of life, and allow them to function at the highest possible level.

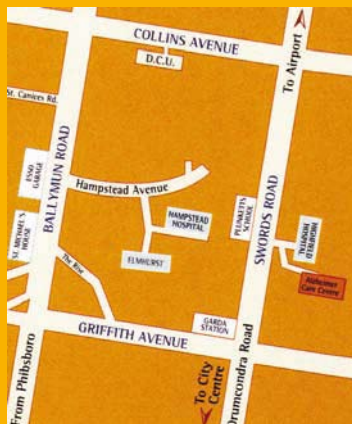

Admission Criteria

The unit aims to assist those people who have advanced age-related memory and physical health problems.

General Information

Set in the grounds of Highfield Hospital. The unit is accessed via the Swords Road, residents, relatives and friends will appreciate the easy access offered being approximately 2 miles from Dublin City Centre and its proximity to the M50 motorway, the East Link Bridge and Dublin Port Tunnel. In addition its location is well serviced by public transport.
